EXAMPLES OF ACTIVITIES FOR CLUB ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
Based on the 5 Avenues of Service

Meeting one of these examples in a category is enough to be eligible for an award. After Rotarians have received each of these five district-level awards, they are eligible for Rotary's overall Avenues of Service Award.

Club Service Award

- Serving on committees or in other club leadership positions
- Contributing significantly to the implementation of the club's long-term membership development plan
- Fostering communication among club members and with the community, through social or other media coverage of club activities

Vocational Service Award

- Mentoring a young person for success in vocational pursuits
- Organizing a vocational service discussion or group workshop to inspire others to take action
- Teaching other club members more about their vocation by giving a talk

Community Service Award

- Leading the planning and implementation of a sustainable local service project
- Securing a partnership with a corporate, governmental, or nongovernmental entity to work on a project together
- Volunteering in community service projects

International Service Award

- Leading the planning and implementation of a sustainable international service project in one of Rotary's six areas of focus
- Coordinating the club's participation in a local or international project fair
- Supporting a service project in another country as a Rotarian Action Group volunteer adviser

Youth Service Award

- Leading the planning and implementation of a service project that supports the development of young people in the community
- Participating in a youth exchange or RYLA event
- Sponsoring an Interact or Rotaract club or fostering a connection between club members and members of a local Interact or Rotaract club
